

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS28866 / H0352

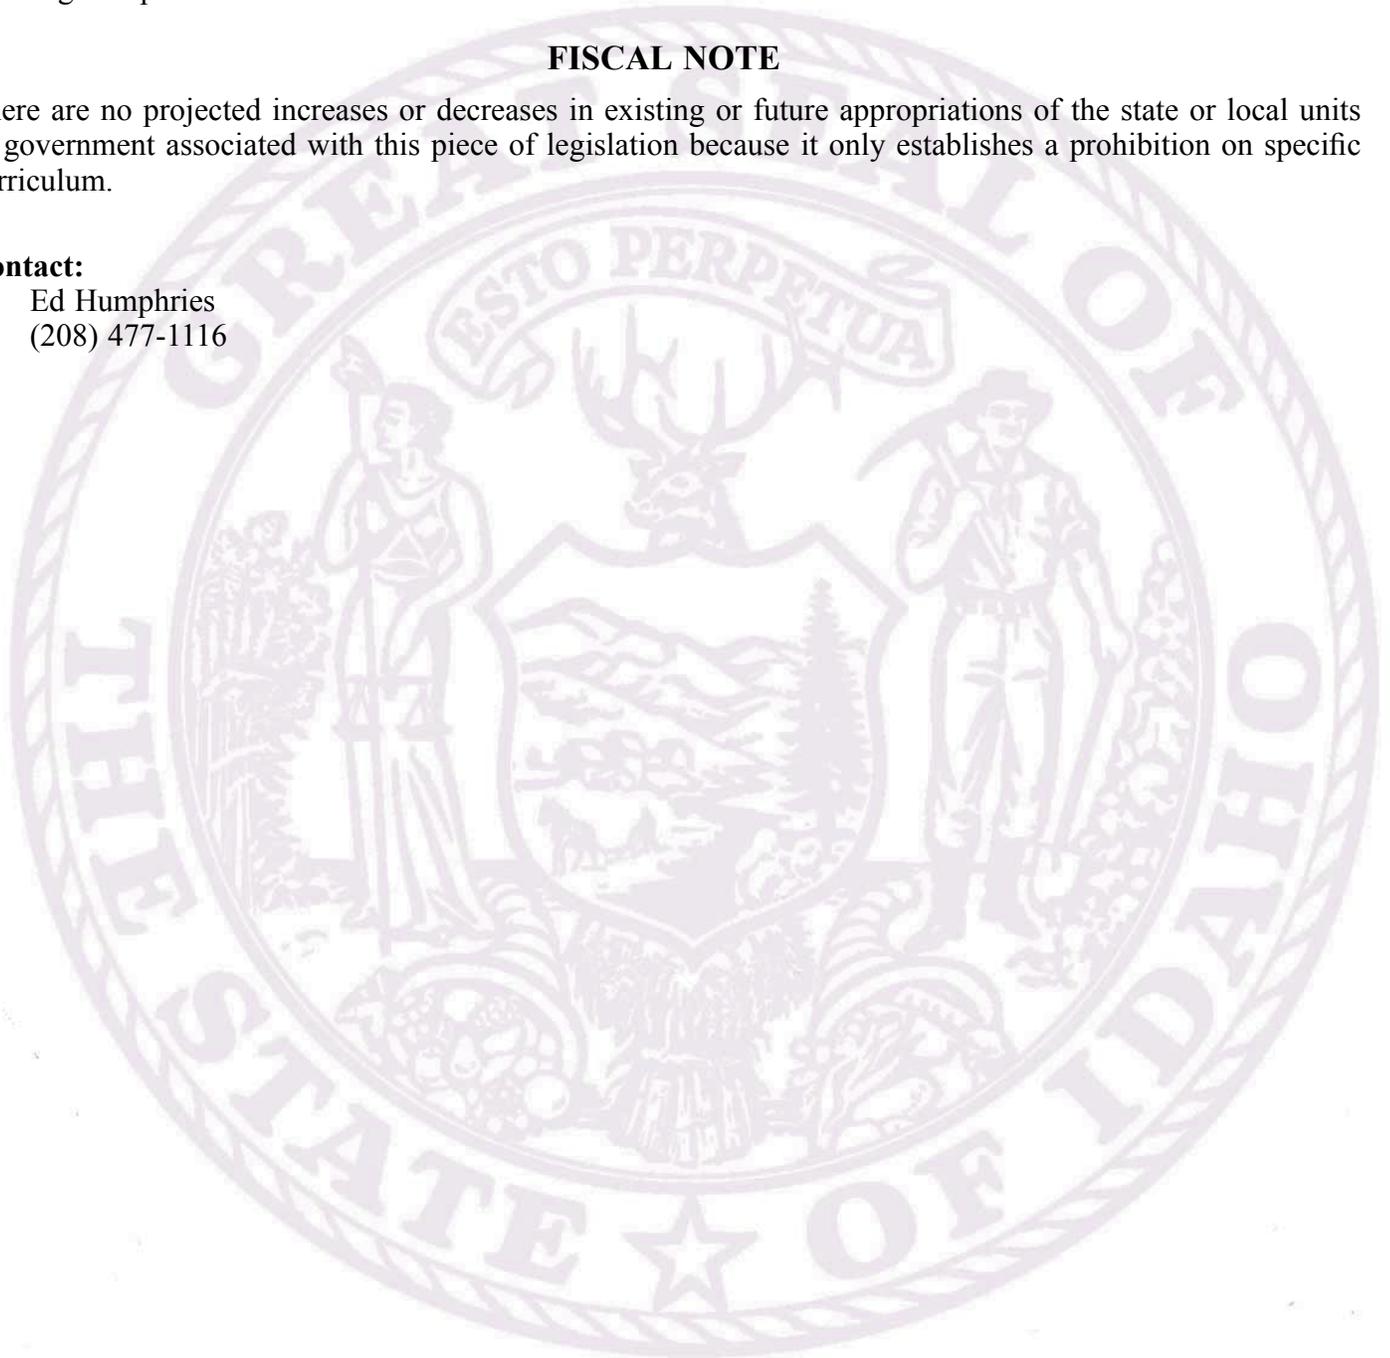

This legislation would prohibit public schools from teaching racist or sexist concepts. If a public school violates this provision this legislation allows the State Board of Education to withhold funds or it provides taxpayers standing in a private cause of action.

FISCAL NOTE

There are no projected increases or decreases in existing or future appropriations of the state or local units of government associated with this piece of legislation because it only establishes a prohibition on specific curriculum.
